About Us

The Fairfield Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to connecting the public with archaeology, preservation, and education throughout the Middle Peninsula. Through immersive experiences, community partnerships, and stewardship of significant historic sites, we bring history to life. Since 2000, Fairfield has engaged thousands of volunteers, students, and visitors through excavations, preservation initiatives, educational programs, and public events at five historic properties in Gloucester County.

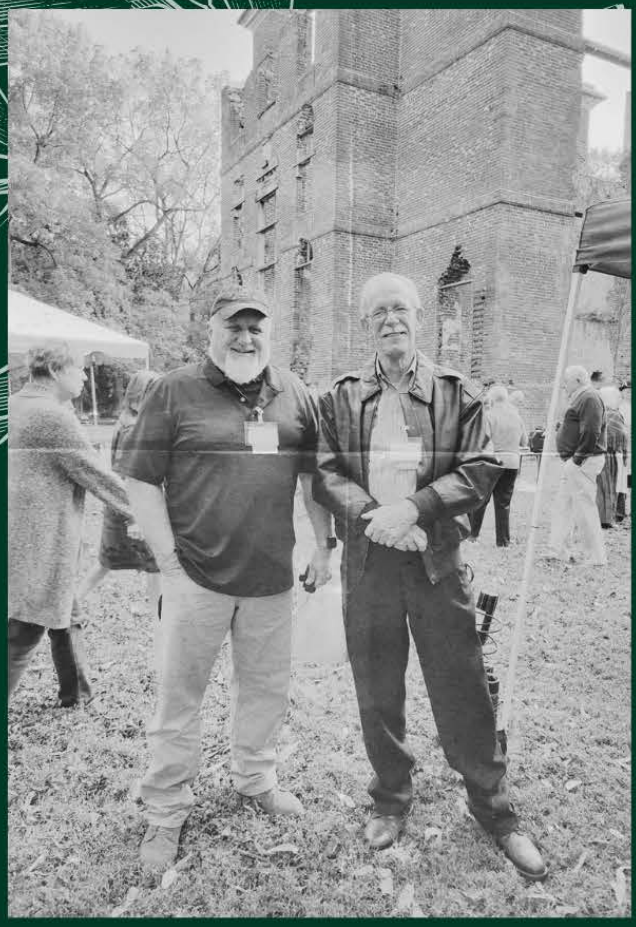
ABOUT THE EVENT



The Historic House Party is the Fairfield Foundation's premier annual fundraising event, bringing together friends, community leaders, and preservation enthusiasts for an evening celebrating the history of Virginia's Middle Peninsula.

This year, the event is hosted at the beautiful Brighton estate in Mathews, VA. Featuring food catered by Gumbeau's, drinks, entertainment, and unique experiences, all in support of Fairfield Foundation's mission to promote hands-on archaeology, preservation, and education. Proceeds directly support Fairfield's programs, historic properties, and community initiatives, helping ensure that local history remains accessible for generations to come.

WHY SPONSOR US

Sponsoring the Historic House Party is an opportunity to support the preservation of our region's history while connecting your organization with a passionate and engaged community audience.

Your sponsorship helps fund Fairfield Foundation's archaeology, preservation, and educational programs, while providing valuable visibility through event marketing, social media, signage, and recognition throughout the year. Together, we can preserve historic places, share meaningful stories, and create opportunities for future generations to explore and learn about the past.
